Town Manager Laurie Smith explained that the County sent the Town the wrong figures for the tax commitment. Their figures did not include the interest on the Town's installment payment. It means a difference of $6,930.85, which will not change the mil rate. Town Attorney Amy Tchao advised her that the Board should rescind its previous motion from the last meeting and revote.

Motion by Selectman Barwise, seconded by Selectman Briggs, to rescind the motion from the July 24, 2014, meeting to establish a mil rate of $7.63 per thousand with an overlay of $ 94,657.49 for a tax commitment totaling $14, 296,356.41 (It is understood that July 24, 2014, is the tax commitment date.)
