October 22, 2019 minutes approved.

No mail to review.

Tom reviewed the changes to the Website – now live. On the opening page, Tom noted that he removed the word “strong”, as had been previously suggested and substituted other words that continuously switch. Additional words can be added. Agendas and Minutes of GPC Meetings have also been added.

Information on the December 14th Prelude table at the Village Fire Station from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM will be available after confirmation from Dan. Also, a Resource Section offering a Project Blog and a Get in Touch for voters to visit and input suggestions are now online.

.Liz has worked on Social Media with the addition of Facebook and Instagram pages for notification of upcoming events She also revised the logo. Suggestion was made to widen the railing space for clearer definition.

Press release for Dr. Cameron Wake's scheduled talk on Thursday, November 21, 2019 from 6:00-8:00 PM has been sent to the YCCS. In the future, event notifications will also be submitted to the Kennebunk Post. Other suggestions were for continuous information to be forwarded to the KRA, Conservation Trust, Chamber of Commerce, Graves Library, Newcomers, Friends of GRB, the Portside Rotary and the Senior Center.

Discussion followed on the December 14th Christmas Prelude table. The survey questions, submitted by Liz, were reviewed and suggestions made. It was agreed to include questions 1, 4, 6 and 7. Those people stopping at the table will be given four “stickies” to indicate their responses to the questions.

As the holidays approach, after our next meeting there will be only one meeting scheduled for December 10 at which the Committee will be working on a baseline review followed by the start of Chapter review.

Next meeting scheduled for November 26, 2019 at 7:00 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Barwise, Secretary
